I means the Unit Standard is assessed internally.

What will I learn?

Skills which will prepare you to work in the hospitality industry. You will build on previous knowledge of nutrition and safe hygiene skills in the preparation and storage of everyday foods for self and others.

How will I learn?

By completing a Certificate of Achievement in Hospitality Standards Institute workbooks. This certificate is in addition to the credits gained towards NCEA. There will be some homework assignments, lots of practical work and catering.

What should I have already done?

Achieved some NCEA Level 1 Hospitality standards.

Where does the subject lead?

To a hospitality course at polytechnic, or if you are old enough, straight into the hospitality industry.

How is the course assessed?

This course is assessed internally using Hospitality Standards Institute material.

Other details: (costs, field trips etc)

Opportunities will be given to visit and practice in tertiary institutions such as CINZ (Culinary Institute of New Zealand) and NorthTec. There will also be opportunities to enter culinary competitions, the Secondary Schools Culinary Challenge and the college section of the Culinary Fare. The winner of this gains a scholarship for tertiary study in the hospitality industry.

There will be a fee of $60.00 to assist with the recovery of food costs.

End of course qualifications.

Credits towards the National Certificate of Educational Achievement Level 2.
