What will I learn?

Students will learn to evaluate and understand the conventions of the media as seen in television and film and to produce examples of these media. Students will also continue to develop skills in written, visual and oral English.

How will I learn?

Students will learn by reading, writing, viewing, thinking and working independently as well as in a group. They will also have practical experience in the use of visual and verbal language in various media.

What should I have already done?

The English work students have done in Year 11 provides a background for this course. Entry to this course also depends on staff assessment of a student's work habits, skills, organisation and attendance.

Where does the subject lead?

To NCEA Level 3 English and Media Studies.

How is the course assessed?

This course is assessed by a range of internal Achievement Standards and Unit Standards. Students will also be assessed throughout the year with tests and examinations.
