School Magazine

The school magazine is due back from the printers in the last week of school. Pre-ordering and paying for your magazine is recommended as there will be limited copies available. Order your copy NOW at the Main Office or Student Centre. $15 each. Please note this was not on your accounts earlier in the year so most people will have to order now.

The school magazine is a comprehensive compilation of every thing that has happened at school this year; events, activities, trips, class photos, etc.

NZQA Exams

Senior students have received the exam timetable and candidate information sheet. Admission slips will be handed out on Tuesday. It is a requirement that they bring their admission slip to each exam. NZQA exams start at Okaihau College on Thursday 9 Nov, Level 1 Drama, 2 pm.

To be prepared for your exams please be at school at 9.00 am for a morning exam and 1.30 pm for an afternoon exam. All exams are in the hall.

If you have any questions please see Mrs Campbell asap - including if you lose your slip before your exam.

Celebration of Excellence Assembly - Thursday 2 November 2017

We held our second and final Celebration of Excellence Assembly for the year on Thursday 2 November. These assemblies have been held since 2007 and are specifically to honour and acknowledge outstanding students in the fields of academia, sports, culture and service. Head Students Kathy Kopa and Manaaki Kaukau-Troughton led the assembly in which thirty-five students were recognised for their outstanding achievements in sports and academia.

The guest speaker was local Senior Sergeant Patrick Davis who is based out of the Kawakawa Police Station. Patrick spoke to the assembled students, staff and parents about making every day count. He referenced the song Glory Days by Bruce Springsteen and advised our students to strive for other things and don't make school the last of your glory days.

The assembly was well supported by a number of proud parents, caregivers, whanau as well as members of our school community. Awards were given to the following students;

Sporting Excellence:

Joseph Barlow (Northland Roller Mills Rugby Team)
Te Tai Rawhiti Croft-Haenga (Northland Roller Mills Rugby Team)
